Pleased to meet you, we are KDL

Logistics, differently

At Kris De Leeneer, we don't work like the rest. As your logistics services provider, we see it as our mission to give your entire supply chain management a boost, in our very own way. Because that's the only way you and we go forward, together.

KRONE

> Effective service provision

Our services are coordinated with one another down to the finest details in order to guarantee our effectiveness. By thinking out of the box, we create solutions that are custom-tailored to you. We shoulder all your logistics concerns so that you can concentrate on your core business, all year round. That's how we help you grow.

> Pioneering mindset

Stuck in old habits? Not a problem at Kris De Leeneer. Each of us has a unique vision of transport, whereby we are all convinced that efficiency is the key to success. For you, for us and for the environment. Because the more efficiently we work, the fewer trucks are required. Sounds contradictory, but we find it logical.

> Personal approach

Our drive, tonnes of energy and personality colour our collaboration. Moreover, they serve as guarantees for our full commitment. We always stay agile, i.e. flexible and reliable. Because we're your partner in providing logistics services.

value for you”.

Kris De Leeneer

KDL Business .

Being a logistics services provider means more than just driving around with a truck (although that is indeed one aspect of the profession). KDL Business encompasses everything we do so that your supply chain can function more effectively. Discover it now!

Our manifesto

Logistics

A smart system

To make sure that fewer trucks are necessary, we always deploy our vehicle fleet as optimally as possible. Better for traffic and the environment. It's our way of helping to deal with problematics that our environment is struggling with today. We always think in accordance with your needs and guarantee a smooth collaboration, so you can be confident that absolutely no demand goes too far. On the contrary! We proactively search for solutions so that you can optimise your processes. As a result, we can ensure that your story becomes stronger, that your lead over your competitors becomes greater, and that you thus receive more opportunities to grow.

I never drive empty.

Our manifest

Planning

Your needs,
our challenges

Good planning is everything in a logistics environment. We strive to plan so intelligently for all of your needs that waste is minimised while cost efficiency is maximised. We discuss with you in detail how we can offer the most effective support.

We open doors

Our planning department is the beating heart of Kris De Leener. Everything is organised and directed from there. Our planners are real "people managers" who do their utmost to ensure that everything goes correctly and deadlines are met, regardless of whatever possible external situations. Our planners create possibilities for you.

Working on tomorrow, today .

Our manifesto

Security

Yesterday, tomorrow and today

As a logistics services provider, we place great importance on safety, and here too we seek to take the lead. Within our own operations we are constantly looking for ways to further optimise safety. We assume our responsibility without batting an eyelash.

Safety is a state of mind

Safety is a state of mind. The KDL team understands the dangers on the road and acts in accordance with its responsibilities. It is our task to jointly create a safe situation for all parties. Kris De Leeneer has a clear prevention plan supported by our prevention advisor. With it we strive to prevent accidents and unsafe situations, both on the road and in our warehouse. Everyone at KDL contributes to this effort.

Together for a safe future.

Our manifesto

Flexibility

24/24 &
7/7

Our flexibility doesn't like to be limited. For Kris De Leeneer, offering you the best logistical solutions is the absolute top priority. Our collaboration is solely devoted to fulfilling your logistical needs.

Our lifestyle

And this goes a long way. We bend over backwards to fulfil your wishes. An emergency delivery? No problem, our "people managers" will do everything to make the impossible possible for you. In this way we can offer you and your customers an extra added value. It is a philosophy that is anchored in our DNA and which guides all of our actions.

Agility as your added value •

Our manifesto

Expertise

Our know-how is your lead.

Create your advantage

For you, our know-how is one of your greatest "selling points". We ensure that your supply chain management runs smoothly and your internal operation can function optimally. Good for you and for your customers, that's how you stay one step ahead of your competitors.

At Kris De Leeneer we eat and breathe transport and logistics. For almost 20 years we have been perfecting our systems and processes so that you can enjoy the greatest possible lead over your competitors. And that's just one of the advantages we offer.

Our manifesto in Belgium and far beyond

Their supply chain is our business

Their supply chain is our business

We're proud to form part of the supply chain of these extraordinary companies. Together we strive for more efficient operations and better service for your customers.
